Our quest for gold

One hundred years ago thousands of families, seeking wealth and prosperity, uprooted their homes and headed for California. Their task was not easy; many hardships had to be endured, but the hopes of a richer living incited them to push onward.

Today, we seniors are the MODERN FORTY-NINERS. Like those brave pioneers of a century ago we are searching for success and prosperity. However, our goal cannot be reached with picks and shovels but rather with ambition and determination.

Through their excellent counsel . . .

Mr. Harry R. Davidson
Superintendent of Schools
A. B. Indiana Central College
M. S. Indiana University

During the past four years the many improvements which have taken place in our schools can be attributed to our very capable superintendent, Mr. Davidson. His modern and progressive ideas have made our high school one of the most up-to-date secondary schools in the state.

Because of his pleasing personality as well as the great job he is doing, Mr. Davidson has made many friends in New Albany since he came here four years ago. He is "tops" with the students because of his warm smile and the friendly manner in which he regards them.

We hope that our schools will continue to improve for many years under his excellent leadership.

W. L.

Every year many new faces are seen in the halls of N. A. H. S.: the wide-eyed freshmen, some new upperclassmen, and a few new teachers. This year the most important new personality is the man in the glass cage, our new principal.

He came to us from Richmond, Indiana, where he was assistant principal of Richmond High School.

We all want to get to know him better, and he is just as eager to become acquainted with us. Although the problems of a new principal are many and his duties require so much of his time, he is never too busy to have a friendly talk with the students. This is our new principal, Dr. Cole.

The students voiced their opinions

"There is a necessary limit to our achievement, but none to our attempt." These words inspired by Phillips Brooks, have been chosen by the Student Council president as a motto for the organization during 1948-1949.

The STUDENT COUNCIL is the voice of the student body. This year it has endeavored to establish cooperation and understanding between the students, faculty and school administration.

As its principal undertaking for 1948, the organization contributed $1,015 from its annual magazine drive for the purchase of a new grand piano. Members of the club acted as hosts and hostesses during the District Superintendents' meeting in December. They also serve as guides for the incoming freshmen each fall.

This year, the Council introduced the first in a series of social hours. The students of NAHS enjoyed dancing and refreshments in the boys' gymnasium. Sometimes an old-fashioned square dance was the main attraction of these Friday afternoon gatherings.

The Student Council program has been high-lighted by the obtainment of a bicycle rack and the purchase of a coke machine.

Ably assisted by Mrs. Jesse Long and Mr. Gordon Raney, the officers of the year included: president, Walter Poff; vice-president, Lynn Huncilman; secretary, Molly Ann Wilson; treasurer, Joe Burke.

The birth of the news

Increasing the number of issues of the paper from eight to nine kept the first semester BLOTTER STAFF busy this fall. Editor, Richard Tichy, and News Editor, Jo Ann Esarey, attended the Indiana State High School Press Association conference at Franklin early in the year, where they received valuable information on publishing the paper. The new staff had a new faculty adviser, Mr. Robert B. Johnson, and both did well on their first job.

The Blotter drive ended with a variety show for all subscribers. Some of the school's best talent performed in the show, which provided excellent entertainment.

The second semester BLOTTER STAFF took over publication of the school paper at the beginning of the second semester. The first issue was given free to the entire student body on February 14. The Blotter show, given for all subscribers, was a Faculty-Senior basketball game.

In preparation for the big job ahead of them, some of the staff members while in Journalism I attended the National Scholastic Press Association conference at French Lick Hotel, November 27 and 28. Those who attended were: Molly Wilson, Audrey Mason, Pat McManus, Geraldine McDonald, Patty Burns, Ruby Smith, Barbara Goodman, Laura Theis, Harry McFrye, and Mr. Robert B. Johnson.

Those with a nose for the news

The REPORTERS CLUB, organized for the first time this year, is open to sophomores, juniors, and seniors who are not regular members of the Blotter Staff.

The club was inaugarated with a dual purpose—first, to allow students not on the Blotter staff to write for the school paper, and second, develop creative writing ability in the high school students.

Members of the club sponsored the sale of official programs during all home football and basketball games. Proceeds from these programs were used to send NAHS journalists to the state and national journalism conferences.

Officers for the club were: Harry McFrye, president; Molly Ann Wilson, vice-president; Nancy Carnighan, secretary; and Stewart Roche, treasurer.

During club meetings the students studied and discussed the various types of stories found in the school paper. After practising writing the various stories, members of the club actually interviewed people, gathered material for feature stories, and helped whenever or wherever needed on the regular staff.

The A's have it

New Albany High School recognizes outstanding scholarship by awarding "N's" to students who qualify. To earn this coveted letter a pupil must receive straight A's in four subjects and a grade of not lower than B in the fifth, if one is taken.

"N" winners for the second semester of last year were: Betty Wray Adams, Dolores Atkins, Prudence Helck, Betty Whitlock, James Allgood, Lynden Duvall, Margaret Gohman, Louise Hobbs, Carl James, Maurice Kinslow, Welman Lindemann, Geraldine McDonald, Patricia Salmon, Beth Taylor, and Juanita Ther.

Like all women, they love to talk

This year the SPEAKERS CLUB celebrated its thirty-seventh anniversary. As the oldest girls' organization at NAHS, the club offers many opportunities for its members.

With the assistance of Miss Grace Stanton, members of the organization introduced to the public a new choral reading choir. The choir made its initial appearance at the Armistice Day Program with the reading of Walt Whitman's famous poem "Ashes Of Soldiers."

Annually the Speakers prepare to meet the ancient, but friendly, rivalry that results from the annual Speaker-Wrangler Cup Contest. To enter the contest, each participant must prepare a ten minute speech on some phase of social science. At present, Speakers rank first with 7-6 over the Wrangler Club.

Since 1912, the club has presented the annual Christmas play. This year Speakers shared honors with the Concert Choir in the production of the Thanksgiving and Easter Programs.

In the spring, the traditional Speaker-Wranglers Dance was given, and all former members and alumnae of the organization were honored at the biennial Speakers Tea.

Men of distinction

The WRANGLER CLUB is organized to promote public speaking, discussions, and debates, and to participate in any worthy function of the school or the community. Membership in this active club is limited to 25 senior, junior, and sophmores boys. All candidates for membership must maintain an A or B in English and social science, and as a final test, deliver a ten minute speech on some subject in the field of social science.

Members participate annually in the Speaker-Wrangler Cup Contest and also in the Rotary Discussion Contest. In addition to putting on their own melodrama, "The City Slicker and Our Nell", the Wranglers assisted the Speakers in their Christmas production entitled, "Christmas Eve Letter."

NAHS rides the air ways

"Good afternoon, everyone, and welcome to HI-TIME." These words are spoken at each broadcast of Hi-Time, presented every Friday at 5:00 over WGRC. NAHS is the only high school to broadcast twice a month. Other schools participating in these programs are Jeffersonville High School and high schools from Louisville.

Hi-Time consists of 15 minutes of news scoops, sport shorts, and transcribed musical arrangements by the NAHS band and Concert Choir. Special programs are also held during the year. One of these featured an entertaining interview with a Canadian scholar.

Each year tryouts are held to select the staff, which is under the direction of Mr. Marvin Oakes, speech instructor. So in the words of the senior announcer, "We'll be seeing you on Hi-Time."

Grease paint glamour

"House lights dimmed, curtain going up!" No matter what the production, backstage you will find "busy beavers" working for their Thespian points. They may be doing the acting but often they are found prompting, making sound effects, busily applying make-up, or working on the stage crew. All these points add up, and when a person earns ten he is elegible for membership to the THESPIAN CLUB of NAHS, a member of the National Thespian Society, which is devoted to the advancement of dramatic arts.

This club is under the direction of Mr. Marvin Oakes, speech instructor. The first semester officers were: president, James Weber; vice-president, Judy Ward; secretary, Margaret Ann Zier; treasurer, Doris Waltrip.

On stage, everybody

Members of the JUNIOR ACTORS CLUB worked hard in preparation for Thespian points. Experience in acting was gained by the presentation of a one-act play "Honey of a Peach" given on January 19 for the student body.

The play cast included Pat Salmon, Pat Spencer, Helen Stone, Roberta Byrd, Donald Sodrel, Herman Hoffman, Reid Crosby, Margie Spencer, and Margie Bailey. Mary Helen McIntosh, Shirley Jo Neeld, Pat Denny, and Janet Kinslow were in charge of properties. The stage crew included James Weber and Billy Rodgers. In charge of make-up were Jean McCord, Harriett Scribner, Virginia Nale, Janet Cooley, and Shirley Jackson.

A three-act play, "Going On Seventeen", was the club's second production. It was presented to the public on April 22.

The club sponsor is Miss Gertrude Wilson, and officers were: president, David Heintz; vice-president, Billy Rodgers; secretary, Pat Denny; and treasurer, Shirley Jo Neeld.

Extra! Extra! Get your experience now! This is the motto of the JUNIOR ACTORS CLUB, whose duty it is to pave the way to becoming a Thespian. All freshmen and sophomore Bette Davis's or Cary Grant's are given a chance to develop their acting ability. During the meetings, members took part in interesting skits and pantomimes. The members of this club gained a lot of experience, poise, and self-confidence that will help them in later productions. They were educated not only in acting, but in all the production work behind the scenes, such as make-up, lighting, sound effects, and staging. As they progress in dramatics, they will be better qualified and have a keener knowledge of the producing of a play.

The club, under the capable leadership of Mr. Robert Johnson and Miss Leora Rusk, presented an entertaining one-act play for an assembly program. Meetings were held every Tuesday during the club period.

Pardon, our manners are showing

The EMILY POST CLUB started the year by giving a Sadie Hawkins Day dance at the Three C's. All the girls came dressed as "Daisy Mae" and all the boys were dressed as "Little Abner". Throughout the evening, examples of the "do's" and "don'ts" of conduct were given. In January, a dinner was given at the American Legion Hall for the new members, who were designated by their blue and gold pledge ribbons. The members sold red and black tournament pennants to raise money and distributed posters on manners which they had made. In the spring, the girls enjoyed a gala picnic and skating party at Speeds.

The main purpose of the Emily Post club is to improve speech, table manners, and to develop courtesy and politeness. In their weekly meetings, the girls hold discussions about these factors of good social conduct.

The active and lively club was led by these officers: for the first semester: president, Nan Goulding; vice-president, Patty Hartman; treasurer, Joann Fulkerson; and secretary, Alice Hartley.

The second semester officers were: president, Alice Hartley; vice-president, Caroleen Noe; secretary, Patty Hartman; treasurer, Coleen Burden; program chairman, Nan Goulding; and publicity chairman, Jo Ann Fulkerson. The club sponser is Mrs. Patricia Diedrich.

The boys' section of the EMILY POST CLUB is under the sponsorship of Mrs. Irma Pritz. Emphasis was placed on the development of character and personality during the club period on Tuesdays. All the members took part in lively panel and group discussions on manners, the proper way to dress, how to eat in public, and many other such interesting and timely subjects. The boys seldom consulted the rule book, Etiquette by Emily Post, but they did quite well without it. Hightlights of the meetings were skits, presented by a special committee, on how to ask a girl for a date, and how to act and what to say on the first date. Mrs. Pritz probably enjoyed these as much as the members.

Although the club was unable to accomplish any special project for the whole school this year, each member has learned some worth-while things which will help him in his daily life.

"How to win friends and influence people"

The HOST AND HOSTESS CLUB is a personality clinic with the purpose of teaching through diagnosis and application. The members of this new club try to make it a definite workshop in personality improvement.

At their weekly meetings they gained experience in meeting and greeting people, planned social gatherings, and practiced public speaking. Short five minute conversations between two students were one of the exercises used in developing the ability to become acquainted easily and gracefully with strangers. These conversations were also used to develop the ability to talk with poise to new friends.

The officers of the club were: president, Peggy Polhemus; vice-president, Jean Sturgeon; secretary, Cora Coleman; and treasurer, Barbara Fryer. The club is sponsored by Miss Elizabeth Wampler.

Testing - - one - - two - - three

The VISUAL AIDS DEPARTMENT of NAHS has achieved wide acclaim as having one of the outstanding school programs in Indiana. Proof of this was the 16 mm. sound projector, a set of World Book encyclopedias, several sound films, film strips, and twelve other smaller awards all won by the department of November. New Albany was also chosen as the one school in Indiana to be used as a demonstration center for the remainder of the state.

Students who are interested in science are given the opportunity to operate the equipment. They are instructed in the mechanics of the operations by Vernon McKown, director of the Audio-Visual Aids, and Fred C. Hochmeister, high school director.

Word was received early in January that the application had been accepted for a FM radio station to be located in the high school building. During the year the Visual Aids Department sponsored an indoor circus to help raise funds for constructing the radio station. The construction will be completed in June, and the station will be ready for use in September.

Since the department's organization four years ago, a large film library has been established. Equipment consisting of three wire recorders, one disc and one tape recorder, and photographic equipment including one 35 mm. camera and two 16 mm. movie cameras is now available to any school upon request.

So you want to be an artist

"Deck the halls with boughs of holly!" This is the duty of the ART CLUB every yuletide season. They give the school the Chrismas spirit with their gala decorations. This year the huge paper mache Santa in the main hall was an added attraction.

"Semper paratus" should be the motto of this helpful club. Whenever any properties, decorations, or posters are needed, the Art Club is always ready and willing to help. No program is complete without the helping hand of this active club.

Their art window always exhibits an attractive display. The members are always engaged in some interesting project. One was the making of realistic puppets. The members also enjoyed two parties this year.

Membership in this club is open to upperclassmen who are interested in art and have maintained an A or B average. The first semester officers were: president, Harry McFrye; and secretary-treasurer, Margaret Gohmann. The second semester officers were: president, Clifton Robertson; vice-president, Nan Goulding; and secretary-treasurer, Ruth Borkenheim. The club sponsor is Mrs. Virginia Biggerstaff.

Did someone say "Dark Room Techniques"?

The primary objective of the PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB is to provide for its members the stimulus for the development of a worthwhile life time hobby.

At present the members are striving to improve their picture taking abilities. Many are learning the dark room processing techniques of film development. In the future a club member may serve as school photographer if his services are needed.

After the club is more fully organized, the members will sell, through the bookstore, human interest snapshots of student activities and highlights of the happenings at NAHS.

Air-minded students keep up on aviation

Discussing aviation topics of interest to students was the main purpose of the AERONAUTICS CLUB. The meetings were devoted to reports and films on aviation and related topics.

Mr. Albert Koehler is the club sponsor.

The Junior AERONAUTICS CLUB, organized under the sponsorship of Mr. Max Wiesman, is composed of freshmen and sophomore boys to whom the club offered educational opportunities as well as leadership.

During club periods, articles were reviewed and ideas exchanged in connection with the study of aviation.

The Junior Aeronautics Club was organized for the first time at the beginning of this school year. Meetings are held each Thursday during the club period.

Various members of the club had charge of the meetings. Phases of aviation were discussed at these times. On February 10, members of the Science Club demonstrated the operation of a model jet engine.

Our smooth-talking salesmen

To develop progressive, respected, and successful leadership in retailing is the main purpose of the DISTRIBUTORS CLUB. Self-confidence is developed and thrift is encouraged and practiced. The club also directs students toward an intelligent choice in the field of retailing where their abilities may be used to the best advantage.

Officers
Standing—Sherrill, Miller, Doyle, Monahan

Sales projects sponsored by the club this year were the sale of hot dogs at football games and the sale of pictures of the basketball team.

Robert Doyle, vice-president of the local Distributors Club, was elected vice-president at the state meeting in Bloomington, February 5. Other activities of the club included the Employer and Employee Banquet, a Sales Clinic, and the annual Christmas Party. At different times throughout the year, outside speakers explained related lines of work.

First Row—Crady, Sattler, Frank, Johnson, Schwartz, Buchheit, Dillow, Amacher.

Under the sponsorship of Mr. Maurice Miltenberger, the JUNIOR DISTRIBUTORS CLUB discussed during club periods, items pertaining to selling. A field trip was taken to the tobacco warehouse to observe a tobacco auction. Admiring and criticizing the window displays down town proved to be another interesting project of the club.

Members of the club promote good will between the school and employers who are cooperating with the retailing program. Also, underclassmen were guided into the proper vocation.

On the social side, the club enjoyed a variety of activities throughout the year. During the first semester, a hayride was given for members of the club and invited friends. A Christmas party was given before the Christmas vacation, followed by a club gathering on Valentine Day.

Officers of the club were: president, James Massey; vice-president, Rozella Taylor; secretary, Nancy Condra; treasurer, Janet Dillow; reporter, Richard Pennington.

"... do as the Romans do"

The JUNIOR CLASSICAL LEAGUE, with Miss Elizibeth Leible as sponsor, meets every week in the Latin room. The club is a branch of the American Classical Association. The purpose of the League is to develop a deeper interest and appreciation of classical subjects and their effect on American life.

J. C. L. members who conducted the initiation service.

The Roman banquet and initiation were celebrated in true Latin style. This year the J. C. L. was the sponsor of a school wide Latin Week in April.

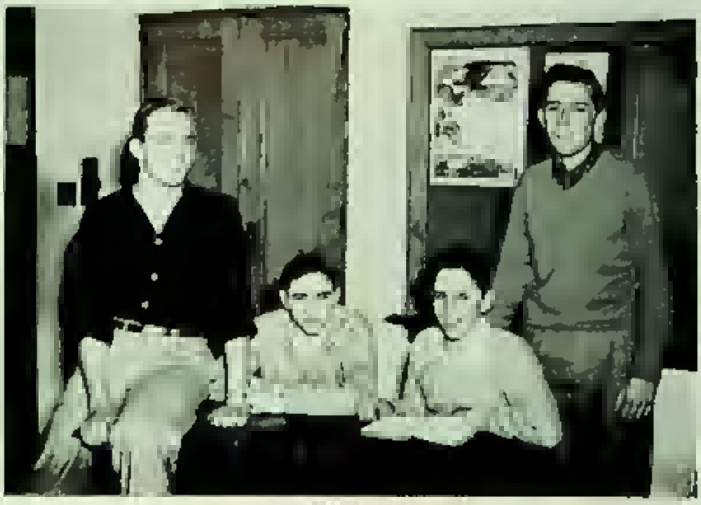
Their aim was good school citizenship

The general purpose of the HI-Y boys is "To create, maintain and extend throughout the school, and community high standards of Christian character".

During the basketball season a check-room in the lower hall was sponsored by these boys with the help of Mr. Robert Willman, their new sponsor. This year the club presented a basketball pep session and held initiation for nine new members. Also, they attended the spring Hi-Y meeting at Sellersburg and the District Conference Meeting as the guests of the Tri-Hi-Y club.



Officers
Voyles, Fox, Jones, Weber.

The Hi-Y club made the school a better place by stressing good citizenship among the students. The club was capably led by its officers: president, Read Fox; vice-president, Harry Voyles; secretary, Kenton Jones; treasurer, Frank Weber; chaplain, Lynn Budd; and sergeant-at-arms, Lynn Huncilman.

Development of spirit, mind, and body

The TRI-HI-Y CLUB is composed of junior and senior girls. Officers elected by the club were: president, Pat Hasty; vice-president, Freda Weber; secretary, Mary Margaret Shoup; treasurer, Maryetta MacMurray; publicity agent, Molly Wilson; chaplain, Audrey Mason; historian, Pat Burns; music director, Nancy Sonner; and marshal, Ninette Steproe. Miss Ruth Braeutigan is the club sponsor, and Miss Ruby Wells is the financial adviser.

With an example set by its leaders, the Tri-Hi-Y stands for the all around development of its members and serves the three main training agencies—home, church, and school.

A checkroom maintained on the first floor during the basketball season proved profitable to the club. Money from this source was used for educational and charitable purposes.

The district Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y conference held at New Albany, April 4, was a highlight of the year. Other Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y clubs of the city assisted at this meeting.

The newly organized TRI-HI-Y for freshman and sophomore girls was installed by officers of the senior Tri-Hi-Y at a dinner initiation held at the American Legion, January 11.

Affiliated with the national organization of Y. M. C. A., the club endeavors to promote high standards of character throughout the home, school, and community.

As a source of revenue for the club, a checkroom was maintained on the third floor during the basketball season. Proceeds from this project were contributed to the Youth World Service and Restoration Fund. The club also sent writing materials to the children of Bremen, Germany.

Members of the club attended the district conference at Sellersburg in the fall, and served as co-hostesses to the meeting held in New Albany, April 4.

Officers directing the group were: president, Evelyn Craycraft; vice-president, Sharon Weber; secretary, Janette Clayton; treasurer, Virginia Ward; chaplain, Patsy Breen; sergeant-at-arms, Barbara Craycroft; and historian, Patsy Carper. Miss Muriel Ryall is sponsor of the club, and Miss Eva Stephenson serves as financial adviser.

"... and the band played on"

The NEW ALBANY HIGH SCHOOL BAND, under the leadership of A. Fielder Myers, is one of the most colorful as well as one of the finest musical organizations in Indiana. The personnel includes soloists and ensembles who have brought state wide recognition to the music department by their superior ratings in the District and State Music Contests. The band maintains a busy schedule during the school year playing for concerts, participating in marching formations, and presenting special novelties for all athletic events. During the last week of August, 1948, the first New Albany Band Camp was established at Camp Bedford, Indiana. The camp was received with enthusiasm by all who attended and will become a part of the yearly band activities.

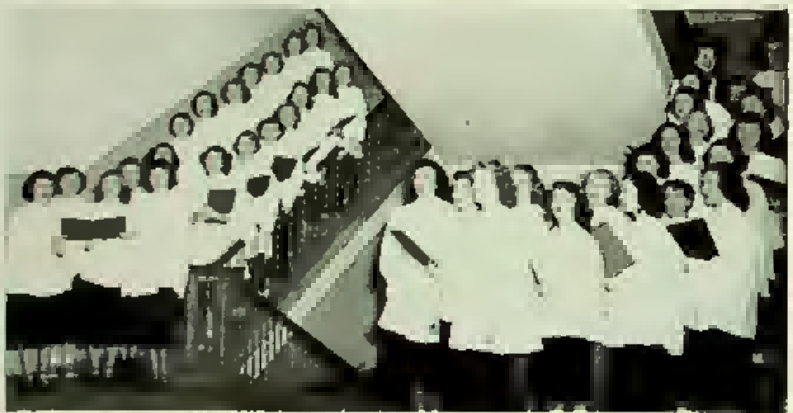
Serenade of the belles

The halls were filled with the joyous music of Christmas as forty-four BEL CANTO girls, dressed in white robes, caroled through the school. This annual custom, which had been previously enjoyed only by the high school, was heard by the grade schools this year. A special bus took the club members and their sponsor, Mr. Robert Carter, to Fairmont, Silver Street, East Spring, West Spring, Griffith, and Scribner High.

Bel Canto, which is a girl's honorary music club, started the year by initiating more than thirty new members at Jeann Budd's home. During Christmas week they sang for the Kiwanis Club and for a group at the St. Mark's Church. Their spring show "Memories" was given the first time on March 2. It was repeated, with great success, at Fort Knox and Nichol's Hospital. The main social event was the spring formal held at the New Albany Country Club.



Christmas Carolers

Like the rest of the music department, Bel Canto is interested in bringing good music to the students so that they may learn to appreciate it. Bel Canto strives to live up to its name, which means "beautiful singing".

"There's music in the air"

"One of the best choirs I've had yet," is Mr. Robert Carter's description of his sixty-five voice CONCERT CHOIR. Because he had so much confidence in them, they were able to stage during April, an operetta, "Down in the Valley". It was a custom several years ago for the chorus to give operettas, but during the past few years they have been discontinued. Now it is hoped that these operettas will be given every year.

Another achievement of the chorus was the Thanksgiving assembly program, where they sang "Grandma's Thanksgiving". The piece was thirty-six pages long, and required much learning. The annual concert of the music department was given by the band and chorus, December 8. Another combined concert was given in May for Music Week.

In April, New Albany was host to the Valley Choral Festival. Choruses from Jeffersonville, Madison, Seymour, Corydon, and New Albany were combined, and an evening concert was given in the gymnasium. The choir also sang at Baccalaureate and Commencement.

They're looking ahead to the future

"Toward New Horizons", the motto of Future Homemakers of America expresses the purpose of the organization—learning to live better today in order that their lives and those of their families may be better tomorrow. This year the MINERVA CLUB of our high school became members of this national organization for home economic students.

A formal initiation dinner at the New Albany Country Club started out the busy year. Then the Minerva Club girls sold forget-me-nots for the D. A. V. in Louisville for which they received a plaque. At Christmas-time they gave a tea for the faculty, and also went Christmas caroling. Selling homemade candy at the basketball games not only earned extra money for them, but gave the fans a tasty treat.

Mrs. Judith Grigsby is the club sponsor.

From Superman to Shakespeare

The principal purpose of the READERS CLUB is to promote and develop more fully the literary interests of the student body.

In club periods, members participated in book reviews, discussions, and debates. By this program, students of the organization learn to develop a more mature taste in the selection of their outside reading materials.

Since many students do not have the time or opportunity to really enjoy a good book, the club period is devoted entirely to pleasure reading. Many members thus acquire a broader range of reading opportunities.

The club was organized in January, 1943, by Mrs. Catherine Lucas, who sponsored it until the present year. Originally its membership was made up entirely of underclassmen. This year, however, upperclassmen also have been admitted to membership.

The club has its own collection of almost one hundred fifty books, but members are encouraged to select volumes, both classical and popular, from school and town libraries. To keep the atmosphere informal, membership is limited to twenty.

Officers included; president, Lula May Hall; vice-president, Marilyn Hamilton; secretary, Katherine Smith; and treasurer, William McCrary. The present club sponsor is Miss Ollera Tyler.

Just what is nuclear fission?

New Albany High is first again! Yes, the SCIENCE CLUB of N. A. H. S. was the first high school to be permitted to tour the Dupont Neoprene Plant. This is just one of the many interesting trips this active club made this year. A few of the other inspection trips into the industries included: Monon Veneer Company, Louisville Beargrass Gas Plant, Paddy's Run Electric Plant, Louisville Police Department, Morgan Packing Company, and Aetna Petroleum Refinery. All these trips were written up and reports given on them. Also, wherever it was allowed, members took pictures.

Each year members try for several of the worthy science scholarships. Last year New Albany was honored to have one of the twenty winners in the Indiana Academy of Science Scholarship. This winner was Betty Gardner, an active member of the Science Club. Recent entrants for the Westinghouse Scholarship were: Sam Robinson, Robert White, Joe McHone, Jack Schaaf, James Allgood, and Salem Homrighausen. Also in the way of scholarships, William Morgan took the examination for the $4,000 scholarship offered by the Fischer Body Division of General Motors.

This club has no officers but operates under the system of rotating chairmen. At each meeting one of the members takes charge and presents a project or gives a demonstration. Membership is limited to 24 boys and girls who have had a semester of science and maintain certain standards of achievement. Meetings are held on Tuesdays and Thursday, and the club is under the leadership of Mr. L. S. Rose, head of the science department.

Sports get the feminine touch

As their major purpose, members of the GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION are endeavoring to increase their interests and abilities in athletics and to set higher standards of sportsmanship among their fellow students.

Under the supervision of Miss Virginia Young, the girls participate in all sport activities and achievement tests marked the individual progress made by each member. Basketball, softball, and volley ball rate high as their favorite pastimes, while tumbling, hiking, and skating run a close second. In the spring, members of the organization participated in field and track activities and each Tuesday and Thursday afternoon after school they could be seen practicing softball. In their club period the girls worked on their tennis technique. Individual awards were presented at the annual spring banquet which was given in May.

The officers included: president, Marilyn Nash; secretary-treasurer, Juanita Ther; recording secretary, Nancy Avery.

"All work and no play . . ."

Members of the GAMES CLUB are endeavoring to promote better social relationships among students of high school age. Each Tuesday morning the students meet in a social gathering with the intention of becoming better acquainted with their fellow school mates.

The club period is used as a social hour. Members of the organization spend their time dancing to dreamy music or joining in old-fashioned group games. The members especially liked the fox trot, waltz, jitterbugging and square dancing. Group singing and the group games, "Broncho" and "Three Deep", were also a source of great fun.

The club was reorganized during mid-semester and membership is now limited to forty freshman and sophomore students. The officers included: president, Warren Dyer; secretary-treasurer, Dolores Banet.

One of our favorite indoor sports

Competition is keen among members of the high school BOWLING LEAGUES. On Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday afternoons, at the Pearl and Oak alleys, enthusiastic teenagers participare in the sport that is rapidly becoming one of the favorite indoor sports throughout the country.

In March, members of the NAHS bowling teams entered the National Bowling Tournament. The final scores of all participants were sent across the nation telegraphically. Ruth Ann Renshaw, an outstanding bowler in the New Albany area, bowled a 560 series in the meet. The boys' team of NAHS, sponsored by the Mueller Beverage Company, rolled up a final score of 2762 points. Members of the team included: C. C. Vernia, Don Eblesisor, Stan Bowling, Donald Deason, and Ronald Hauswald.

Bowlers in the girls' league were not to be outdone. The team, sponsored by the Gohmann-Kahler Company, racked up 2690 points for a total score. The NAHS contestants placed high in the national ratings. Members of the girls' team included: Mary Sue Endicott, Rosemary Busald, Carolyn Cullens, Ruth Ann Renshaw, and Theresa Lutz.

Outstanding bowlers and individual high-scorers were honored at the annual bowling banquet this spring.

Under the supervision of Mr. Floyd Henry, the bowling leagues not only provide a wholesome form of recreation but they also encourage a spirit of enthusiastic sportsmanship among students.

Commence firing!

The New Albany High School JUNIOR RIFLE CLUB, sponsored by Mr. H. F. Francis, is affiliated with the National Rifle Association of America. The purpose of the club is to promote marksmanship and sportsmanship among the members.

Officers
Whitlow, Ewing, Erdman, Mr. Francis, Ketzner.

Shooters participate in inter-school matches, national postal matches, and shoulder to shoulder tournaments. Members earn national shooting qualification awards given by N. R. A. and U. S. War Department. Ourstanding marksmen are awarded marksmanship "N's".

Current officers were: president, Kenneth Erdman; vice-president, William Ewing; executive officer, Robert Ketzner; secretary, Margaret Whitlow. Any high school student can become a member of this organization.

Yea Red! Yea Black!

All pep sessions given this year were under the direction of the SENIOR BOOSTERS, an active club of junior and senior girls, whose purpose is to increase school loyalty and encourage good sportsmanship. Instead of putting on all pep sessions by themselves, the Boosters assigned them to other clubs in the school to evenly distribute the work.

The Boosters sponsored mixers at the Recreation Hall after all the football games. They had a bonfire before the Jeff football game. Their annual basketball banquet for the team was held in the spring. The club also worked out a plan for choosing cheer leaders, which would be more acceptable to the student body and faculty.

Yea Team! Fight Back!

"To boost all school activities" is the ambition of the JUNIOR BOOSTERS, a new club organized this year. The club is open to all freshman and sophomore girls. It now has 132 members, which makes it necessary to have a special attendance secretary.

The primary purpose of Boosters is to encourage good sportsmanship, and to sponsor organized yelling at the basketball games. To accomplish this, they joined forces with the Senior Boosters. The Junior Boosters' formation of a block "N" at the games contributed much to the appearance of the cheering sections.

Many social activities were enjoyed by the club. During Christmas vacation they gave a party at the Cellar. In the spring they entertained with a skating party and a Sox Hop.

Despite scores Bulldogs showed plenty of fight

The New Albany Bulldogs, under the coaching reins of Alex Thom, marked up a record of three wins, five losses, and one tie for the 1948 season. The Canines got off to a slow start, but mid-season found them improving and winning over such strong teams as Jeffersonville, Seymour, and Boonville. Co-captains Bill Embrey and Harold Striegel exhibited fine leadership throughout the entire season. Striegel, hard driving fullback, was New Albany's leading scorer.

The Canines lost heavily by graduation, but with such lettermen as Jim Jenkins, Phil Hart, Bob Clayton, Joe Burke, and Joe Marquet returning next year, the Bulldogs can't help but have a bright future.

NA-6 Bloomington-28 The Bulldogs tasted defeat early in the season as the Panthers outclassed the canines in every phase of the game. Don Yeager tossed an aerial to Sid Hood for NA's only touchdown.

NA-6 Flaget-21 Things looked bright for the Bulldogs in the first quarter as Harold Striegel raced 46 yards to pay dirt, but Jackie Richardson, Flaget back, proved too much for the Thommen in the last half.

NA-6 Bosse-26 The Bosse Bulldogs just couldn't be stopped and dragged the unwilling and hard-fighting Canines into their third defeat. Pete Gill was the lone scorer for New Albany.

NA-36 Seymour-6 New Albany, off to a slow start, turned on in the last half to snow under the Owls for the Bulldogs' first win of the season. Don Ogden stood out on defense for the Canines.

NA-20 Jeffersonville-7 The game was nip and tuck all the way through the first half but Harold Striegel tallied two touchdowns in the last half for the New Albany victory.

NA-7 Vincennes-7 With the score tied, "Streak" Striegel galloped 72 yards for a New Albany touchdown, but the play was called back because of an off-sides penalty and the game ended in a tie.

NA-46 Boonville-12 Nothing could have stopped the Bulldogs as they ripped through the Pioneer's defense for sizeable gains. Striegel was the big gun for New Albany as he scored five touchdowns.

NA-12 Central-40 The powerful Bears from the "Cresent City" scored almost at will against the hard-fighting Bulldogs as they handed New Albany their fourth defeat.

NA-12 St. Xavier-34 A couple of bad breaks sent the Canines to defeat in the last game of the season. Jim Jenkins scored two touchdowns for New Albany.

most impressive season

Coach Raney's Bulldogs chalked up the finest season in New Albany basketball annals, winning 17 games against only 3 losses. The Dogs burned up the nets, averaging better than 50 points per game while holding opponents to a 36 point average. Victories over such outstanding teams as Jeffersonville, Madison, Vincennes, and Huntingburg, were included in the impressive list of wins.

The Bulldogs opened the season by overpowering Silver Creek and Vincennes. Central of Evansville sent the Dogs into their first defeat. After falling to the Bears, the Canines bounced back to win five straight before succumbing to Madison in the final game of the Invirational Tournament held in the NAHS gym. After the turn of the new year, the Bulldogs annexed eight straight victories but lost a heart-breaker to Jasper 57-56. They wound up the season with easy wins over F. J. Reitz and Columbus. Their hopes for the tournament crown were lost when they were upset by Jeffersonville 41-32 in the final game of the sectional.

NA thinlies win 3 drop 2

With Louie Meyer, Eugene Endris, and Bob Clayton leading the way, the New Albany thinlies in the '48 season won 3 meets while dropping 2. They finished second in the Invitational meet held at Buerk Field. Some very good records were set by Louie Meyer in the low and high hurdles and Sam Robinson in the high jump.

Other capable performers were Eugene Endris and Louie Wolfe, quarter-mile; Bob Clayton, mile; Herb Ward, half-mile; Dave Wagner, dashes; Bill Schuppert, broad jump; Don Yeager, pole vault; and Jim Robinson, shotput.

The '48 baseball squad, coached by Gorden Raney, ended the season with a not too impressive record of five wins against as many losses. After losing five of their first six games, the Canines turned on to win four straight. Pete Gill, Jo Jo Dean, Jack Hosback, and Eugene Frieberger held down the mound chores for the Bulldogs. A high light of New Albany's 7-0 win over K. M. I. was Pete Gill's one hit pitching.

'48 golf team winds up season at 4 and 4

Four victories against as many defeats was the record of the 1948 season hung up by the New Albany golf team under the guidance of Coach Floyd Henry. The team met and conquered Anchorage, twice; Flaget; and the strong Manual team. They were the victims of Bedford, twice; and St. Xavier.
